the said fifteenth day of September, 1643. at the houre aforesaid, and likewise except all such Castles, Townes, Lands, Territories, and Hereditaments therunto belonging as within the laid Countyes respectively, on the said fifteenth day of September. 1643. at the houre aforesaid are possessed by any of His Majesties Protestant Subjects, or such as adhaere unto that party respectively, in the laid County of Waterford, and the rest of the last mentioned Countyes. And it is concluded and accorded, that the like rule for Cornewallen, and what shall be payed by places protected, and for the laying out wafts for the respective Garrisons, shalbe observed in the Province of Manner, as it is set downe for Leinster.

Item. It is concluded and accorded that the quarters in the Province of Ulster, be as follweth: viz. That such Countyes, Baronyes, Lands, Tenements, and hereditaments in the Province of Ulster, which the said fifteenth of September, 1643. at the houre aforesaid, are possessed by any of his Majesties Protestant Subjects, or any that adhaere unto them, and all Places protected by any Commander during Authority from his Majestie, shall during the said Cessation remaine entirely in the hands and in the possession of his Majesties Protestant Subjects, and such as adhaere unto them, excepting such Castles, Lands, and hereditaments, as on the fifteenth day of September, 1643. at the houre aforesaid, are possessed by the said Roman Catholique Subjects now in Armes, &c. or their partie. And that all such Counties, Baronyes, Lands, tenements, and hereditaments, in the said Province, which on the said fifteenth of September, 1643. at the houre aforesaid, are possessed by the said Roman Catholique Subjects now in Armes, &c. and their partie shall remaine entirely during this Cessation in the hands and Possession of the said Roman Catholique Subjects now in Armes &c. and their party saving and excepting therout all places protected by any Commander, deriving Authority from his Majesty, and likewise excepting therout all such Territories, Castles, Towns, Lands, Tenements, and hereditaments, which on the said fifteenth day of September, 1643. at the houre aforesaid are possessed by any of his Majesties Protestant Subjects, or such as adhaere unto them. And it is concluded and accorded that the like rule for Corne sowne, and what shal be payed for protected places; and for the laying downe of wafts for the respective Garisons, shall be obserued in the Province of Ulster, as is set downe for Leinster.

Item. It is Concluded & accorded, that the quarters in the Province of Connaght, be as followeth, viz. that the County of Galway, the County of the Towne of Galway, the Counties of Mayo, Roscommon, Sligo, and Letrym, in the Province of Connaght, and all such Cattles, Lands, Tenements and hereditaments in the said Province which the said fifteenth day of September, 1643. at the houre aforesaid are possessed by the said Roman Catholique Subjects, now in Armes &c. & their party, shall during the said Cessation remaine entirely in the possession of the said Roman Catholique Subjectes, now in Armes and ther party, excepting all such Territories, Castles, Lands, Tenements and hereditaments within the said several Countyes which upon the said fifteenth of September, 1643. at the houre aforesaid are possessed by any of his Majesties Forces, or by their party, or by any of them, and that those who after taking protection of any of His Majesties Forces, or any of that party or from any Governors, deriving riving Authority from his Majesty there, have loyned ^{for} themselves to the said Roman Catholique Subjects now in Armes, &c. and their party, shall pay no Contribution unto such who protected them. But in regard there may be a rule different touching persons that may be said to doe this, and consequently touching the Contributions payable by them. Is is concluded and accorded that such disputes and questions if any shall arise, be determined by Commissioners indifferently chosen on ~~each~~ ^{one} side, and it is concluded and accorded, that the like rule for sowers and manurers of corne within the quarters of each other, shall be observed in the Province of ~~Con-~~ ^{one} ~~Leinster~~ ^{Leinster}, as is set down for Leinster.

Item It is Concluded and accorded, and the said Marques of Ormond, for and in the Name of his Majesty doth promise and undertake, that no interruption shall be given unto any of the said Roman Catholique Subjects now in Armes, &c. or their party, in any of the said Countyes, quarters, or places by the said precedent Articles vnto them or any of them limited as aforesaid, during this Cessation, like as the said Donnogh Viscount Muskery, and the rest of the above named persons who are authorized as aforesaid do promise and undertake, that no Interruption shall be giuen vnto any of His Majesties Forces, Protestant Subjects, or such as adhære unto them, within any of the said Countyes, quarters or places, by the precedent Articles limited vnto them as aforesaid, during the said Cessation.

Item It is Concluded and accorded, that no Officer of the Army or Souldier of either side, shall be admitted without licence from the Commander in cheife of the Army on both sides, or of the Commander of the next Cheife garrisons respectively ^{no of} ^{or} ^{shall} ^{in York} ^{or B} especcially to passe or repaire into any Garrison on either side, save that it be lawfull for either party to furnish any Garrison in their power during the Cessation, with Victuals, Cloath, amunition or other necessaryes by licence as aforesaid, which is not to be denied upon demand.

Item. It is concluded and accorded, that if any Army or Forces in this Kingdome raised by his Majesties authority or any part therof, or any other his Majesties Subjects shall not yeild obedience to the Articles of this Cessation, but shill publickely stand in opposition therunto; that the said Roman Catholique Subjects now in Armes &c. and their party may persecute such: and the said James Marques of Ormonde doth promise and undertake that such who shill so stand in opposition, shill not be assisted, protected, or befended against the said Roman Catholique Subjects now in Armes &c. or their party, by his Majesty or any of his Forces. And yet neuerthelesse the same shall not be understood to be any breach of Cessation, as to other parts of the Kingdome, which shall conforme and yeild therunto.
And wheras the assistance of his Majesties Forces is desired by the said Roman Catholique Subjects now in Armes &c. against such as shill oppose the Articles of this Cessation and will not yeild obedience therunto, or interrupt the trade and Traffique; albeit that it is not to be supposed that there will be any such the said James Marques of Ormonde. doth further promise and undertake, that their said request shill be made knowne to his Majesty, and vpon signification of his pleasure the same shill be obeyed.

Item. It is concluded and accorded, that if in other cases it be pretended on either side that the Cessation is violated, that

that yet no act of Hostility is immediately to follow, but first the party complayning is to acquaint the Lord Generall, Lieutenant Generall, or other cheife Commander of either side in that Province, in which the said Cessation is pretended to be violated therwith, and to allow fourteene dayes after notice giuen, for reparation or satisfaction, and in case reparation or satisfaction be not given or tendred, then fourteene dayes notice to be given before Hostility begin.

Item. It is Concluded and accorded, that all Prisoners and hostages of both sides in all parts of the Kingdome, excepting such of them as are indicted of any Capitall offence, shall be mutually released and set at liberty within seaven dayes after publication of the said Cessation. And the said Marques of Ormonde, doth further promise and Vnder-take, that such Prisoners who incidited of any Capital offence, shall be set at liberty vpon Baile, vntill His Majesties fur-ther Pleasure be knowne therin. Provided neuerthelesse that if any party of His Majesties Army in any other Province of the Kingdome, shall not within ten dayes after Publication of these Articles, yeild obedience thereunto; that the same shal be no breach of Cessation, but that His Majesty be first made acquainted with such Disobedience, and his direction expected therin: & that al other persons that do reside with either party, and all Women and Children shall be permitted within seaven dayes after publishing of this Cessation, or when they please, with their goods & Chattles, to depart to what place they please, with a safe conduct or convoy if they desire it.

Item. It is Concluded and accorded, that the said Ro-min Catholique Subjects, now in Armes, &c. and their party, may at any time during the Cessation send such Agents to His Majesty as they shall thinke fit: And that the said Agents shall have safe conduct in writing from the Cheife Governor or Governors of this Kingdome for the time being upon demand.

Item. It is Concluded and accorded, and the said Marques of Ormonde, doth promise and undertake for and in the Name of His Majesty, that all and every of the precedent Articles, which have been agreed unto, and undertaken by the said Marques, for and in the behalfe of His Majesty, shall be faithfully, truly, and inviolably obserued, fulfilled, and kept.
